Agenda and Minutes

1. Minutes

2. Visit with Santiago Lerma, legislative aid to Supervisor Ronen. Subject: Graffiti and illegal activity on Valencia at 16th Street and the BART Stations. We had an extensive discussion with Santiago who confirmed that there would be a new moratorium on selling goods at both BART Stations. In addition, he mentioned that his office was working with the DPW and Mission Police Station to reduce graffiti, even though we mentioned that we haven't seen any progress. He also mentioned that he'd be leaving his position at Supervisor Ronen's office, wouldn't be running for supervisor, and didn't endorse anyone else.

4. Report on meeting for homeless housing on 16th & Mission: Donna, Aaron, and Barbara reported that they went to a public meeting about the proposed temporary housing for the homeless at 16th & Mission. They said that the meeting was packed with homeless activists who shouted down any opposition and Supervisor Ronen, who was there, gave her support. They also said that they felt that it was a done deal when they arrived.

5. Future MDNA Leadership – Peter and Donna agreed to continue in their positions on a limited basis with meetings scheduled for the second Wednesday of February, June, September, and November 2024. Aaron Phillips was elected Secretary-Treasurer.

6. Adjournment

Thank you.
